

One-Hit Wonders...(each answer found only once in The Urantia Book)

Across

4. Not the loser, but the _____
6. The Greeks themselves believed in three souls; the vegetative resided in this digestive organ
7. This kind of hapless being does not have much chance of survival in a primitive and warring tribal social organization...think "savant"
9. A Mithraic sun-god, ___ Invictus...think latin "sun."
10. John Zebedee came nearer to being the good buddy (sometimes familiarly called this) of Jesus than any other earth mortal
11. The early races were not overly neat and clean, and the average primitive community rose from one to two feet every twenty-five years as the result of the mere accumulation of dirt and _____
12. Along with mint and anise, one of the spices that the "hypocrites" tithed...it is a popular Mexican spice these days
15. In Jesus' back yard, near the animal annex, was the shelter which covered the mill for grinding grain, and this for cooking bread
16. A _____ was attacking a slave girl on the public highway when Jesus and Ganid happened along
17. The Chinese merchant's first name
19. A string of these was once a collection of sacred stones
20. In primitive times, magical charms were concocted from human flesh, crocodile teeth, poison plant seeds, snake venom, and these "fingernails" of the tiger
24. Godad was one of these solitary individuals...also a type of crab
25. Before man realized that his evolving soul was fathered by a divine spirit, it was thought to reside in different physical organs — the eye, liver, heart, or this organ which processes fluids
26. It was the modern one of these centers of manufacture which largely set women free from the confines of the home
31. The Jordan valley had beautiful oleanders laden with their blossoms of this girly hue...
34. This used to be the largest of the US states - before Alaska, that is...
35. Annas was a _____ and politic planner and plotter...sometimes used with the word "debonair."
37. Children like this kind of activity - let's choose sides!
38. Vessels for cut flowers

Down

1. Jesus told his followers the story of the white _____, an Easter flower
2. This aromatic herb is said to repel vampires
3. Another name for fairies, dwarfs, or banshees...or, a chocolate lover's favorite dessert
5. Spirit beings do not inhabit this kind of airy, insubstantial world; they live on actual spheres of a material nature
8. Said Jesus: "my heart _____ for my people, and my soul is distraught by that which lies just before me."
9. Jesus went over to Sepphoris to work with this kind of metal craftsman - also the most common English name.
13. Things must not be despised just because they are old, neither should an idea be unconditionally embraced just because it is _____ and new...also, a lengthy story
14. A variety of present-day trees from which we harvest a yummy syrup
17. There is a very large one of these between science and religion; metaphysics is man's attempt to span it
18. The Garden was already a _____ of botanic beauty by the time Adam and Eve got there
21. Your mother's sister, to you
22. The angiosperms suddenly appeared along with fig trees, magnolias, and this kind of tree...also a beautiful Spring flower
23. The teasing of newlyweds and _____ played upon honeymooners are all relics of far-distant days - short-sheets, anyone?
24. One of the great Sierra peaks; not Shasta, not Rainier, but this one...also a monk's headwear
27. The UB calls this practice "futile."
28. In Mary and Joseph's home, the furniture consisted of a low stone table, earthenware and stone _____ and pots
29. _____ the appetites of your associates for truth
30. Cain married this woman, his distant cousin
32. The advancing fifth glacier reached all the way to this US state known for its corn
33. A pint can never hold one of these measures
36. Remains of the earlier white races, although buried all over Europe, are not to be found — only their ashes in stone and clay _____ - the ashes of the dead are still placed into them

39. The age of light and life could be called this ideal state

This crossword puzzle was created with EclipseCrossword. Try it today—it's free!