

Christmas 2010

Across

- The massacre of sixteen _____ took place about the middle of October, 6 B.C., when Jesus was a little over one year of age
- To her, Gabriel said: "...he will...proclaim the coming of the soul-healer of your people and the spirit-liberator of all mankind..."
- the small, flat clay lamp on the table in Jesus' home, was filled with this kind of oil
- Jesus was a blending of his parents' _____
- He made the personal choice of Joseph and Mary to be Jesus' earth parents
- No Jewish woman of that day had a more illustrious lineage of common progenitors
- Jesus was not such a Messiah as the _____ had anticipated, but he was the world's deliverer
- Joseph did not become reconciled to the idea that Mary was to become the mother of an extraordinary child until after he had experienced a very impressive one
- Joseph was a black-eyed brunet; Mary, a brown-eyed well-nigh _____ type
- Gabriel appeared to Mary by the side of a low stone _____
- It will hardly be possible fully to explain the many reasons which led to the selection of Palestine...as the immediate setting for the appearance of this _____ on Urantia
- Caesar Augustus decreed that that this would be used to "number the people" and effect better taxation
- Every room in Bethlehem was filled to overflowing. There was no room here.
- No _____ nor any other mortal creatures came to pay homage to the babe of Bethlehem until the day of the arrival of certain priests from Ur
- Mary and Joseph were married here

Down

- Jesus' lifework on Urantia was really begun by John _____
- Michael finally chose _____ as the planet whereon to enact his final bestowal
- The "Star of Bethlehem" was a result of extraordinary but wholly _____ events
- It was the plan of Michael to appear on earth as this kind of man
- The three wise men is another common name for the priests from Mesopotamia who left these with Mary
- on the eighth day, according to the Jewish practice, Jesus was circumcised and formally given this name
- Joseph and Mary went up to the temple at Jerusalem in person to present Jesus to them
- Intrigue and murder, even in his own immediate family, were common occurrences at his court
- Joseph and Mary went forth on the morning of August 18, 7 B.C., on their journey to this city
- At the noontide birth of Jesus the seraphim of Urantia...did sing _____ of glory over the Bethlehem manger
- Jesus was not destined to sit upon his throne
- Mary, being large with child, rode on the _____ of burden
- In just the same manner as all others of these have come into the world, the promised child was born
- Mary and Elizabeth were this to each other
- A mild-mannered man, extremely conscientious, and in every way faithful to the religious conventions and practices of his people
- In spite of the legend there was not a bright one of these to guide the wise men to Jesus.
- The time of day that Jesus was born on August 21, 7BC